Dated 7th June 1939.

To

The General Secretary to Government,

Bangalore.

Sir,

My Wife Mrs. P.C.Reddy, B.A.,B.T., had submitted her application through the Central Recruitment Board, vacancy No.495 - Assistant Mistress, Arya Balika Patasala. It is now learnt from the office of the Director of Public Instruction that her application has not been received there. As my wife stands a good chance of securing the appointment and as she has already resigned her present appointment, I request that her application may kindly be caused to be traced or the duplicate one be forwarded to the Director of Public Instruction.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

P Reddy

7) The gentleman ought not to have given the application to the clerk in the C&R as appears he might as well have put the application in the petition box or sent it by post. If we attach any importance to such things, it will create an inconvenient and undesirable precedent. From the statements of the officials, it is seen that the application is not [illegible]. Besides Mr. E Thirugnana says that he the Gentleman gave duplicate applications. But the same gentleman told me that it was a single application. The last date for submission of the application was 18th May 39. Now he has given another set of applications on 9.6.39. They are placed below. It is for orders whether these application are to be forwarded to the appointing officer now. Two qualified candidates have applied for this post in time and they are sent to the appointing officer on 24.5.39. ~~The above application is accepted and is also found to be~~ ~~[illegible]~~

Increment file of Mr. T. B. Ethirajalu

Subs:-

1) The last increment of Mr. T. B. Ethirajalu, I Dsn. clerk in the Office of the Secretary. CRBs., raising his pay from Rs 60/- to Rs. 65/- p.m in grade 40-5-90-6 was sanctioned from 25.2.1938 upto 25.2.39 (vide Orders in the file - flag "V").

2) It was subsequently ordered on 14.6.1939 and on 27.4.1940 that his increment should be stopped for a period of one year. (vide orders in the files - flag "R" & "L" and "K").

3) The point for orders is whether the withholding or postponing of increment for a period of one year is or is not to have the effect of similarly postponing his future increments. In either case an O.M. may issue.

4) After the orders are passed on the points above, the increment roll will be put up.

5) Subs for orders.

Rs
26/4.

6) Mr Ethirajulu was entitled to get a pay of Rs 70 from 25.2.40, which was not sanctioned to him as it had been ordered on 14.6.39 that his increment should be stopped for one year. He became entitled to get Rs 75 from 25.2.41. This could not be sanctioned as there was a second order stopping his increment for one year.

7) The situation resolves itself to the fact that Mr Ettirajulu has been drawing Rs 65/- from 25.2.39 and that he lost his two increments, firstly for having received a set of application forms from a certain Candidate and having misplaced them and secondly for long delays in working up cases.

8) The loss sustained by the official amounts to Rs 180/-, if he continues to draw Rs 65/- till 25.2.42, when he would be entitled to an increment in the normal course, provided his work and Conduct are satisfactory.

9) Mr Ettirajulu's work from 18.11.40 to 17.1.41 in the C.R.B. office was satisfactory.

9) Subd for orders

29.4.41 10) This is an official borne on the C.R.B. Establishment. He worked in this office till 17.1.41. Now he is working in the G.R.S. proper and in his place a U Division Clerk of the G.R.S is sent to the C.R.B.

11) Except for his delaying of some papers in the C.R.B, his work was satisfactory in other respects. The two punishments may be considered to have run concurrently without postponing his future increments.

12) The Chief Sy may also be consulted in the matter, as the Official is now working under him and as the C.R.B. Office is an associated one with the G.R.S.

13) The original orders of two stoppages of increment did not specify whether the stoppages would have the effect of postponing future increments. In view of the opinion of the Secretary, Central Recruitment Board, that his work was satisfactory except for delaying some papers, and if his work in the Revenue Branch has also been satisfactory, there would seem to be no objection to both the orders being treated as not delaying future increments. In this case, he would draw Rs.70/- from 25th February 1941 (instead of Rs.75 which he would have drawn had the second order not been passed). From 25th February 1942, he could draw Rs.80/- provided his work continues to be satisfactory.

The Cover referred to by ~~Mr. Chatterjee~~ Mr. T.B. Vellingiri Naidu might have been handed over to me as stated by him, But as it should go to the Secretary C.R Bd. in the Appeals stage, it was given to the dispatcher to submit to the Secretary with the Appeals of the day as usual.

I do not know as to what stage it took afterwards and whether it was in the proper form satisfying all the conditions etc. It might have been perhaps filed along with applications uncalled for. If it had come to me after it was seen by the Secretary C.R.B. in the Appeals. If it should have merely gone to the concerned vacancy file.
